IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 10, 2005

Mr. NELSON of Florida (for himself, Mr. LUGAR, and Mr. ROCKEFELLER) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Finance

A BILL

To amend titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act and title III of the Public Health Service Act to improve access to information about individuals' health care options and legal rights for care near the end of life, to promote advance care planning and decisionmaking so that individuals' wishes are known should they become unable to speak for themselves, to engage health care providers in disseminating information about and assisting in the preparation of advance directives, which include living wills and durable powers of attorney for health care, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

4 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5 “Advance Directives Improvement and Education Act of 6 2005”.

7 (b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents of 8 this Act is as follows:

Sec. 1. Short title; table of contents.

Sec. 2. Findings and purposes.

Sec. 3. Medicare coverage of end-of-life planning consultations.

Sec. 4. Improvement of policies related to the use and portability of advance directives.

Sec. 5. Increasing awareness of the importance of end-of-life planning.

Sec. 6. GAO studies and reports on end-of-life planning issues.

9 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

10 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-11 ings:

12 (1) Every year 2,500,000 people die in the 13 United States. Eighty percent of those people die in 14 institutions such as hospitals, nursing homes, and 15 other facilities. Chronic illnesses, such as cancer and 16 heart disease, account for 2 out of every 3 deaths.

17 (2) In January 2004, a study published in the 18 Journal of the American Medical Association con-
 19 cluded that many people dying in institutions have 20 unmet medical, psychological, and spiritual needs.
 21 Moreover, family members of decedents who received

1 care at home with hospice services were more likely 2 to report a favorable dying experience.

3 (3) In 1997, the Supreme Court of the United 4 States, in its decisions in Washington v. Glucksberg
5 and Vacco v. Quill, reaffirmed the constitutional
6 right of competent adults to refuse unwanted med-
7 ical treatment. In those cases, the Court stressed the 8 use of advance directives as a means of safeguarding 9 that right should those adults become incapable of 10 deciding for themselves.

11 (4) A study published in 2002 estimated that 12 the overall prevalence of advance directives is be-13 tween 15 and 20 percent of the general population,
14 despite the passage of the Patient Self-Determina-
15 tion Act in 1990, which requires that health care
16 providers tell patients about advance directives.

17 (5) Competent adults should complete advance
18 care plans stipulating their health care decisions in 19 the event that they become unable to speak for 20 themselves. Through the execution of advance direc-
21 tives, including living wills and durable powers of at-22 torney for health care according to the laws of the 23 State in which they reside, individuals can protect 24 their right to express their wishes and have them re-
25 spected.

1 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are to im-
 2 prove access to information about individuals’ health care
 3 options and legal rights for care near the end of life, to 4 promote advance care planning and decisionmaking so
 5 that individuals’ wishes are known should they become un-
 6 able to speak for themselves, to engage health care pro-
 7 viders in disseminating information about and assisting in 8 the preparation of advance directives, which include living 9 wills and durable powers of attorney for health care, and 10 for other purposes.

 16 side the State in which such directive is presented, even 17 one that does not appear to meet the formalities of execu-

 21 such requirements, except that a provider or organization
 22 may decline to honor such a directive if the provider or 23 organization can reasonably demonstrate that it is not an
